Proposals for the 2019 Medicare physician fee schedule and clinical laboratory fee schedule (CLFS) released July 12 include reforms designed to relax reporting requirements for providers of health services, and take advantage of emerging telemedicine technologies. See what US Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services Administrator Seema Verma said about it here.

"Physicians tell us they continue to struggle with excessive regulatory requirements and unnecessary paperwork that steal time from patient care." –Seema Verma, administrator, US Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services
