Device Week, Aug. 2, 2018 – A Closer Look At Cancer Surgical Ablation

by Catherine Longworth

In this edition of Device Week, Medtech Insight's Tina Tan finds out more about the fast-growing market for surgical ablation devices to treat cancer. Marion Webb gives an insight into the speed at which the market is expanding and who are the emerging innovators. Catherine Longworth then discusses in more detail one of the more established players in this field – Medtronic – which has installed its Visualase system in the UK for the first time after getting a CE mark recently.
