Sunnyvale, CA-based surgical robotics giant Intuitive Surgical has landed its first UK headquarters and training suite in Oxford. See what Sebastian Johnson, head of innovation & inward investment at Oxfordshire Local Enterprise Partnership, said about it here.

"It's great to work with Intuitive here in Oxford and fits with our drive to be a global innovation ecosystem. The kind of innovative business that Intuitive is fits perfectly with our existing ecosystem and is exactly the type of business we want to attract to Oxfordshire." – Sebastian Johnson, head of innovation & inward investment, Oxfordshire Local Enterprise Partnership
