

11 Mar 2020 | News

QUOTED. 11 March 2020. Nita Lowey.

by

An $8.3bn "Coronavirus Preparedness and Response Supplemental" funding act, approved by US Congress and signed into law on 6 March, will assist efforts by US federal and local agencies to fight the coronavirus. See what House Appropriations panel chair Nita Lowey, D-NY, said about it here.

“With the recently enacted $8.3bn emergency supplemental, the federal government can aid state and local health departments in mitigating the extent of the virus.” – Rep. Nita Lowey, panel chair, House Appropriations Committee

- Find out more: \$8.3Bn Coronavirus Response Act Lays Out US FDA's, CDC's And Localities' Roles in Fighting Virus

Click here for a free trial of Medtech Insight