QUOTED. 8 August 2020. Ashley Wittorf.

by

AdvaMed Accell executive director Ashley Wittorf spoke in support of a proposed US House bill that would give financial help to small companies making products to address COVID-19.

“This legislation will serve as a vital lifeline to these small, entrepreneurial companies ... and provide fast and efficient capital availability to support them through the current economic downturn.” – Ashley Wittorf, executive director, AdvaMed Accell
