QUOTED. 3 March 2021. Greg Dadika.

by

Medtech Insight spoke to attorney Greg Dadika about mass tort litigation, including industry trends, how to find the right law firm, and when it's the right time to settle a suit. See what Dadika, an attorney at the law firm Greenberg Traurig LLP, said about it here.

“Plaintiffs love to criticize the 510(k) process ... but in fact, FDA does a time-consuming and thorough review of the information that medical device manufacturers present to reach a conclusion that a device is safe and effective.” – Greg Dadika, attorney, Greenberg Traurig LLP
