Medtech quality expert Rob Becker says the COVID-19 pandemic has likely changed the structure of audits and inspections forever – including the end of “war rooms” for inspectors and staff.

“I wouldn’t expect us to go back to where we’ve got two conference rooms, one for a front room and one for a back room, and those are booked all week, and there are just lots of people standing by.” – Rob Becker, senior quality director, Edwards Lifesciences Corp.
