

12 Nov 2021 | News

QUOTED. AdvaMed.

by

AdvaMed told the US Department of Commerce that policies put in place to address the ongoing supply chain issue should prioritize the unique role of medical technology.

“Even as the medtech industry has proven nimble and adaptive, avoiding disruptions in the delivery of patient care, the ongoing shortages which are predicted to go on well into next year present an unsustainable situation for our industry.” – AdvaMed

Find out more: Prioritize Medtech In Addressing Semiconductor Shortage, AdvaMed Says

Click here for a free trial of Medtech Insight